

Cycling and Walking Australia and New Zealand (CWANZ)

Membership

Expression of Interest

Cycling and Walking Australia and New Zealand (CWANZ) is calling for Expressions of Interest for membership in the following membership types:

- Local Government
- Representative Organisation
- Associate

Membership types are defined in the CWANZ Terms of Reference and organisations will be selected to ensure that there is suitable representation and diversity within each membership type. Membership terms are renewable and are for two years, commencing October 2020.

Representative organisations must be an incorporated body with a governing board. Local governments as well as local government professional bodies may apply.

Expressions of Interest for Local Government and Representative Organisations close 17 August 2020. Expressions of Interest for Associate Members are open on a continuous basis and observer membership is open by invitation only.

Please return your completed form and a copy of the nominee's Curriculum Vitae (CV) to info@cwanz.com.au. For further information please contact the Executive Officer eo@cwanz.com.au.

After nominations close a selection panel of three, consisting of the CWANZ Chair, and two CWANZ Government members, will assess the submissions. The decision of the selection panel is final. The CWANZ Terms of Reference and Membership Selection process are available from www.cwanz.com.au.
